Negro Veterans Hold National Convention In Little Rock

AT THE SEVENTH ARMY RECREATION CENTER at Fort Barrancas, Fla., life guard Pvt. Robert D. Jelks, Cincinnati, Ohio, demonstrates with Pvt. Robert Armstrong, Ancilla, Fla., the proper technique in life saving. Troops receive two hours instruction per day in "watermanship" at this recently established Army installation. No other training is required during their week-long stay. Soldiers spend most of their time deep sea fishing, sun bathing, boating and sight-seeing. Neither loss of furlough time nor extra cost is incurred by the men of the new peace-time Army who "vacation" at this resort. (U. S. Army Signal Corps photo from W. D. Public Relations Division.)

Condemn Racial Violence And Urges Opportunities For Negro Vets

Delegates From All Sections Attend

LITTLE ROCK, Ark., Aug. 18.—Many states were represented at the National Convention of the National Council of Negro Veterans which held its second national meeting here this week. The sessions which were extended over a three-day period were presided over by National Commandr B. H. Muldrew of Kansas City, Kan., one of the founders of the organiaztion. Formed and chartered in the state of Kansas, in 1940 by a group of disappointed World War One veterans who saw the many discriminatory tactics employed against them by members of the older veterans groups this organization has grown into a large body covering many states.

Highlighting the program were the resolutions passed condemning the rising tide of racial strife now engulfing the nation. A more liberal policy providing more liberal opportunities for Negro veterans and the intergration of Negro personnel in the Veterans Administration and the other agencies responsible for the administration of veterans' training also were adopted. The appointment of a National Service Officer to represent Negro veterans' claims before the Veterans Administration and the establishment of a national office in Kansas City, Kan., were other important measures passed by the convention.

One of the many interesting events of the meeting was the welcoming address given by Little Rock's Mayor, Dan T. Sprick, a veteran of World Wars One and Two who praised the group for their foresight in organizing to fight for the extension of American principles to all groups. Another very informative address came from James A. Winn, Manager of the Veterans Administration for the state of Arkansas, who pointed to the many benefits now available to veterans.

Officers elected for the coming year were: Vernon C. Coffey, of Kansas City, Kan., a veteran of World War One and a formerly flying instructor national commander; Molton H. Gray of Birmingham, Ala., national vcie commander; Robert Powell of Kansas City, Kan., national vice commander; Mack C. Spears of Kansas City, Kan., national adjutant; O. S. Bonds, national treasurer; R. L. Williams, Atlanta, Ga., national service officer; D. J. Albritton, Little Rock, Ark., national historian; L. D. Lamb, Kansas City, Kan., national chaplain;

Lynch Spirit Flares In New York City

NEW YORK.—Negro citizens of New York, shocked by news during recent weeks of Southern barbarism in the lynching and terrorizing of Dixie Negroes, discovered with grave apprehension growing signs of the lynch spirit in teh city's Greehwich Village section, as reports of numerous beatings of Negroes in that part of the city were made known. One of the most alarming aspects of the situation is the apathy of Village police who, according to a reliable source, know the idetity of the hoodlums who are organized to "keep n——s out of the Village."

Walter White, NAACP executive secretary, expressed concern over the situation which was developing less than a week after he had been assured by Police Commissioner Wallander that the rights of Negroes in the city would be protected.

About 2:30 a. m. on August 11th, Arthur Smith was chased by a gang of men on his way from a restaurant to the subway. Calling for the police as he ran, he found one, who told him to go on into the subway and made no attempt to pursue the gang. On the contrary, he got into a police car that was passing and left Mr. Smith standing unprotected on the sidewalk.

Elsie Marie Miller, who has a shop in the Village about a block from her home, has been subjected to insults and hooting for the past three years from a neighborhood clique who say she has no right to live in that neighborhood. Sometimes she is afraid to go home at night. Her home was broken into once and pawnable objects taken and, though she has repeatedly complained to the police, no action has been taken as yet to discourage the gang from molesting her.

The latest reported attack was made on a group of employees of Cafe Society, a popular Village night club. Sarah Vaughn, entertainer, George Treadwell, musician, and Naomi Wright, matron, were surrounded by a mob of hoodlums on August 3rd after leaving a hamburg diner. The group managed to get into the subway before they were seriously hurt, but Miss Vaughn says she can positively identify one of her assailants, possibly more. It is hoped that, in this case at least, direct action will be taken so that these people can leave their work without fear of violence.

Several other instances of tauntings, chasing and beatings would seem to indicate that the blame for this terrorism can be pinned on the particular group in the neighborhood. Undoubtedly, a firm attitude on the part of the police could break it up.

Eyewitness Found In Woodard Case

NEW YORK—NAACP investigators working in South Carolina in an attempt to discover clues which would lead them to the policemen responsible for the savage attack and blinding of Negro veteran, Isaac Woodard, announced today the discovery of an eyewitness to the Feb. 12 assault. The witness, a Negro veteran, had remained silent for fear of retaliatory action against himself. When found however, the veteran readily supplied investigators with the information he possessed and drew up a signed affidavit when promised NAACP protection.

The veteran, whose identity cannot be disclosed for obvious reasons, in his affidavit clears up a controversy which reached a dramatic climax recently when Orson Welles, hard-hitting radio commentator and Hollywood actor, answered the mayor of Aiken, S. C., who demanded a retraction of the charge made by Woodard that the brutal attack had occured in that city. Welles, in his regular Sunday afternoon network broadcast, had stated that oWodard, a man who had served his country during the war claimed that he'd been attacked and blindedin Aiken, S. C. "The burden of proof lies with you, Mr. Mayor," said Welles. "You should have addressed your demands for a retraction to Sgt. Isaac Woodard. But it would have to be sent in Braille, Mr. Mayor, for Isaac Woodard has no eyes," continued the provocative commentator.

Woodard in explaining his reasons for naming Aiken as the scene of his horrifying experience said, "To the best of my knowledge I was attacked in Aiken, S. C. The policeman, after he put me in a car to take me to the hospital answered me when I asked him where I was. He told me we were in Aiken, S. C. When we got to the hospital, the

Union Leader Speaks Here

Convention Being Held In Birmingham

In a recent speech to the International Molders and Foundry Workers Union of North America, Isaac C. Chapman, International Representative of the Union and Affiliated with the A. F. of L., certainly pounded the Union Workers on the head and they liked it.

Mr. Chapman came to Tuscaloosa on August 18 and spoke to the workers of the entral Foundry at the Morning tSar Baptist Church, Holt, Ala. The International Representative with 30 delegates from all sections of the country came by special bus from Birmingham where the convention is being held for a number of weeks.

"Success of the Organization," said Mr. Chapman, "has been great. In 1940 only five Negro Delegates were attending the Convention. At present, there are 30, which is a comparative small number out of the 541 of which the rest are white."

Mr. Chapman's talk revolved around "Progress Toward Elimination of Discrimination in the Labor Union Group." He also stated that Labor Union has been responsible for 75 per cent of laborr ights as far as Negroes are concerned, and that handicaps are due directly to lack of interest.

The organiaztion covers the United tSates, Canada, and Nova Scotia. Mr. Chapman is the only Negro International Representative in the organization. The Convention is now being held in Birmingham with White and Colored meeting together and will continue for three weeks.

In an interview with him he stated that he had received approximatey 65 or 70 requests for appearances which means an extended trip for about five months through the South to New Oreans and North to Canada.

ABOVE IS Isaac C. Chapman, International Representative of The International Molders and Foundry Workers- Union of North America. Mr. Chapman is also affiliated with the A. F. of L. He is the only Negro Representative and travels throughout the U. S., Canada,a nd Nova Scotia. He resides at 1918 Middle Ave.; Elyria, Ohio, but is now in Birmingham attending the I. M. & F. W. U. of North America.

MILWAUKEE—General Omar N. Bradley, Veterans Administrator warns of possible veterans' work training scandal: "From the outset unscrupulous persons lost no time in taking advantage of veterans' training on the job. The dishonest employer and the unthinking veteran have already infected the program in many States."

YOUNG PEOPLE'S CONFERENCE HELD

The Presbyterian Young People's Conference of the Snedecor Memorial Synod was held at the Presbyterian Church during the past week, with Rev. W. L. Bottoms, Regional Religious Director, in charge. The Conference reported a very successful meeting with quite a number attending each evening.

The meetings were held on the Campus of Stillman Institute.

Northwest District State Convention Closes Session

WEST BLOCTON.—One of the most successful and inspirational sessions of the Northwest District State Convention was held in West Blocton, Ala., at the Peace Baptist Church, July 16-19, that it has witnessed since its origin. Rev. J. P. McClellan, pastor of Weeping Mary Baptist Church here has been president of this convention for 18 years, and was unanimously reelected the 19th time during this session. The sermons coming from ministers from all sections of this district gave the highest spiritual reactions experienced in the history of the convention. The abled ministers bringing out the theme of the convention so vividly clear were: The Revs. O. S. Harvey, E. W. Williams, J. M. Wesley, J. L. Ware and G. W. Sloan. The same staff of officers for this section was retained, with the exception of the president who has passed on to her reward; with Mrs. Bennett succeeding her, and Mesdames Mabel Williams and Pinkie Gordon as first and second vice presidents, respectively.

Financial Reports

Field workers: Mrs. Jenkins reported raised $355.85; Mrs. Cunningham, $123.00 and Mrs. Gladney, $645.06. The grand total raised by field workers was $1,245.65.

The Women's Auxiliary reported raised approximately $1,300.00, making a grand total raised of approxi mately $3,060.00.

The session will meet with the Caanan Baptist Church, Bessemer, Ala., Rev. E. L. Plant, Pastor.

Al Tokle, kid brother of the late Torger Tokle, is attracting attention as a ski star in his native Norway.

Boy Scout Camp Closes

For the first time in five years, the Negro Division of the Black Warrior Council made provision for the Scouts to attend camp under the leadership of trained leaders. The staff consisted of Mr. J. Arthur Jordon, Executive Director; Mr. W. Jones Dennis, Camp Director; Prof. Forrest Pulliam; Mr. James Prewitt, Camp cook, and Mr. Charlie King.

Twenty-seven boys attended camp with the staff. On special days and occasions visitors were admitted. There was quite a number. Troop 212, Tuscaloosa; 219, Northport; 266, Columbia and 213, Greensboro were well represented by Scouts and Scouters.

Swimming in the well supervised pool, under the watchful eye of Mr. Dennis and his assistants was enjoyed by every boy. Despite the fact of very inclement weather during the entire camp period the staff was forced to vary from its program; but was able to get five boys to second class rank.

Troop 202, under the leadership of Mr. Emanuel Reed, spent a week in camp at Centerville, Ala. Mr. Reed, who has done much to keep this fone group together for many years as scout master, is still the "grand young man" with the fellows. He states that Troop 202 will have the first Eagle Scout within a period of eight months.

The camp at Northport closed its doors August 8, at 12 noon, and Centerville terminated its work at 5:30 p. m., August 15.

Mr. M. P. Gilmer, chairman of the division, says that he is more than pleased with the attendance of both camps and expects to start work now for the promotion of camp next season. The Court of Honor will be held at Porter's St. Paul C. M. E. Church in Northport for the Tuscaloosa District during the first week in September.

The Voice of The Vets

By C. D. F. WILKINSON

Comrads of the war and peace, there has been much concern over the new issues passed by the 79th Congress, therefore we are devoting our column to these new revisions this week.

Tighter control over the on-the-job training and education sections of the Servicemen's Readjustment Act has been given the Veterans Administration.

The authority was needed to curb growing abuses of this section of the law, which pays subsistence allowances to veterans while following an earn-while-you-learn course.

Under a new law, the Veterans Administration is permitted to give finanical assistance to the states to maintain supervision over training establishments and to establish nationwide standards of training.

Some of the provisions of the new ruling are explained in detail in the questions and answers which follow:

Question—What is the maximum amount a veteran many earn under the new Act regulating subsistence allowances for schooling and training?

Answer—A veteran with dependents may earn a maximum of $200 a month; without dependents, $175 a month.

Q.—How much will the Government pay a veteran who is studying

Q.—How much will the Government pay a veteran who is studying or training if he is earning this maximum from his employer?

A.—Nothing.

Q.—How does the Act limit subsistence allowances?

A.—By stating that "in no event shall the rate of such allowance plus the compensation received exceed $175 per month for a veteran without a dependent or $200 per month if he has a dependent or dependents."

Q.—Will the provisions mean a cut in subsistence allowances?

A.—For some veterans, the new provisions will mean a cut in allowances.

Q.—What effect will the legislation have on students in full time and part time school courses?

A.—They may earn as much as possible while attending school. If such earnings total less than their income limit they may receive subsistence to the amount of the difference.

Q.—How will the provision work out for the veteran in training who is earning less than the amount fixed as his limit?

A.—He can receive as subsistence the difference between $175 or $200, depending on whether he has dependents or not; he can receive enough of the allowance to bring his total income up to his maximum.

Q.—Do the new provisions apply to disabled veterans enrolled under the vocational rehabilitation Act?

A.—No. It affects only veterans and establishments involved in the G.I. Bill.

Q.—Will the new measure delay monthly checks?

A.—No. August 31 checks will go out on time and will give veterans the same amounts they have been entitled to before the new Bill was passed. Veterans are warned that if they are subject to the cut in allowance they will owe some of their check to the Government, and over a reasonable period of time will be expected to return it. The payments will be handled so there will be no break in pay to veterans.

(Veterans wishing questioned answere in this column are urged to write Prof. C. D. F. Wilkinson, coordinator of Negro Veterans, in care of the Tuscalooosa Weekly Review.

THE ROAD TO SUCCESS

BY JOHN W. HORTON

BY JOHN W. HORTON

What ever aptitude for particular persuits nature may donate to her favorite children, she selects none but the studious and laborious to distinction. There are some who have achiveed their objective in life by sturdy, hard work and zealous effort, while there are still some who are endowed with all of the luxuries of life by heredity. This is because of the foresight of their forefathers for their posterity. There are not so very many of our group who are blessed with the pedigree of aristocratic genders, and we find ourselves, unfortunately surrounded by the environments which other groups have created for their own happiness and pleasure. Now. What are we to do about it? Are we to rusticate because of the fact that our fathers were not so fortunate as to enjoy the privileegs of providing for the comfort and happiness of their future generations on a large scale, and rely upon some other source to create for us an environment to satisfactorily support our welfare and the welfare of our oncoming generations? No. We must achieve for ourselves the things that we would really enjoy.

We know that there are no short cuts to substantial wealth, but we know too, that "he that hath wealth hath power" and whoever aims to accumulate wealth "Must" economize in every expenditure. We might maintain the idea that "My money is no good to me if I cannot get what I want with it. But, brother that is a vast mistake and it would be a very good resolution if we did not cherish that idea any longer. Because money is better to save than to earn and lose, and it is good to you at all times when you SAVE it. Then, how do we expect uor future generation to combat the hazards of life in a more scientific age than we are now living, if we do not establish for them some form of financial fuondation right now? Maybe, a few of us who are not already, become independent livers so far as money is concerned, but they will be those who economize and spend wisely during these days of inflaiton. The people who buy what they need, and that only, will be far ahead of those who increase their budget with the increase of their income or wages, when this inflation wanes and the great depression inevitably comes.

So, dear readers, let us work, study and scheme to prepare ourselves for the coming perils of poverty and want by saving and establishing for ourselves and our posterity a firm foundation whcih can only be obtained by foresight and economy.

By C. D. McKELVY

And Moses said, "I will now turn aside, and see this great sight, why the bush is not burned."—Exo. 3:3.

A burning bush, blossoming in flame, fruiting in coals of living fire. Enthusiasm is hot; it is the soul of sustained activity; fatigue is forgotten while a living principle presses the faculties into a constant flow of performance. It masters decrepitude of old age, as did Caleb at 85 when he said: "We are fully able to possess the land, let us go up now."

It is impossible to doubt the sincerity of enthusiasm. Hypocrites may dance around the altar, but only the sincere can walk calmly up to it. Imitators will lay flowers upon it, but only the children of truth have a fondness of laying themselves upon it.

What will we do who have set our affections and tests upon this poor perishing world? The path Christ makes to glory runs through the church and clear on, without a break across the gulf, like some daring railway bridge which has been thrown across some mountain gorge and goes straight on without a curve, only with an upward grade. It is therefore our duty like Moses' to lead young men and women into the church of the living God. The manner of the work may change; the spirit of the work and the spiritual as a basis for the wise use of the intellectual, social and material things. Our young men must surrender to Christ. "Self surrender is the law of heaven."

There is a great evil that exists among the vast number of irreligious homes of our people, many of them it is true, are not without culture, refinement and social enjoyment. But lacking the most important element that constitutes a christian home.

Presented In Recital

SELMA—On Monday night the Tabernacle Baptist Church presented Mrs. Johnnie Howard Franklin of St. Louis, Mo., in recital. She was accompanied by Mrs. A. B. Dinkins and Miss Pauline Dinkins at the organ. Among the numbers presented by Mrs. Franklin were 'Car Selve" from the opera Atlanta by Handel, and "Lungi Dal Cora Bene" by Seeche.

Mrs. Franklin began in St. Louis as a soloist in her father's church and to better prepare herself as soloist she received training from conservatories of repute such as Urano Tumaiati Vocal Studio of St. Louis. For four years has been a student at the Roy Terry School of Music of St. Louis, Mo.

In order to render greater service to her public she entered the Lincoln University at Jefferson City, Mo., to further her education in the field of music.

Along with her studies in the field of music she has taken special courses in the Bible and Religious Education and Evangelism. Her evangelism has been very effective in that many thousands of persons have been inspired and brought to follow Christ.

She is national directress of the National Volunteers of America and editor of the Missouri Baptist Pilot and Supervisor of the Music Department of the Fairfax Baptist Church.

'Forgotten' Georgia Murder Under NAACP Scrutiny

NEW YORK—Another incident in the concerted drive under way in Georgia to terrorize Negroes has belatedly come to light. Ollie Harrington, Public Relations Director of NAACP, recently in that state investigating the Monroe massacre unearthed facts indicating a new "lynching." The incident would have been one of the many that occurs and is forgotten had not NAACP investigators immediately gone to work to clear up the "mystery."

The story is a pitifully familiar one. John J. Gilbert, employed in a chalk mill in Gordon, was found shot to death on a roadside about 500 yards from his home on the morning of Aug. 3. He had, according to his wife, left for work on his regular schedule that morning at about 5:30. It seems evident that he was "waylaid," as Gordon citizens state, by some unknown party who had planned the killing. Rumor has it, in whispers, that possibly and even probably, he was put to death by enemies he had made among the whites by his participation in a recent unionizing movement in the chalk mines. An earlier case of a beating given a Negro labor union member in the mines received considerable publicity.

Although the case has not been investigated locally, the coroner and the sheriff who were called immediately upon discovery of the body, and held an immediate inquest, gave their verdict as "gunshot at the hand of unknown parties." Nothing further has been done.

If this man was killed as an example of the treatment which will be dealt other Negroes in that county who join unions, it will serve as a convincing kind of intimidation. NAACP's investigators are working to bring the murderers to account, so that those freedoms granted all citizens under the Fourteenth Amendment and the NLRA will be properly respected by brutal South ern lawbreakers.

The Ninth Connectional Christian Educational Congress

By PROF. H. D. DAVIDSON,
Delegate From Alabama

The Ninth Connectional Christian Educational Congress and Youth Convocation of the A. M. E. Church was held under the auspices of Bethel A. M. E. Church, and in the Auditorium of the Du Sable High School, Chicago, Ill., Aug. 6-11, 1946.

It was estimated that four or five thousand visitors, ministers and Delegates were at this Congress.

Bishop John A. Gregg, Bishop of the Fourth Episcopal District, the host Bishop, was the General President and Dr. S. S. (Sunshine) Morris was General Secretary.

The following Bishops of the A. M. E. Church were present: Wm. A. Fountain of Georgia Senior Bishop; John A. Gregg, S. L. Greene, H. Y. Tooks, R. R. Wright, D. Ward Nichols, G. E. Curry, Frank M. Reid, A. J. Allen, G. W. Baber and John H. Clayborn.

Many general officers were present as well as other leaders of African Methodism from almost every State in the Union. Many of the outstanding leaders present were candidates for the Bishopric. Only a few of whom can be named here: A. Wayman Ward, I. H. Bonner, Joseph Gomez, W. R. Wilkes, F. D. Jordan, C. A. Gibbs, D. T. Babcock, G. Wayman Blakely, E. C. Hatcher, S. S. Morris, J. W. Hair and many others.

Some outstanding individuals, not members of the A. M. E. Church who took part in the program. Dr. George E. Haynes, for many years Executive Secretary of the Federal Council of Churches in America, spoke at the opening session on the subject: "The Church is on the Spot." Governor Dwight Green sent a telegram of greetings and congratualtions, Dr. J. W. Eichbelberger, of the A. M. E. Zion Church, welcomed the Congress in behalf of the International Council of Religions Education. In the course of his talk he condemned the "Half-Loafers" and "The-Time-Is-Not-Ripers." The welcome in behalf of the youth was given by Miss Evelyn Roberson and on behalf of the children, by Carol Williams. Mayor Kelley asked Major Kimbell to represent him on the program, which he did. Bishop William A. Fountain of Georgia gave a very pleasing response to the many cordial welcomes.

In every part of the program, much stress was put on preparedness for leadership. In order to get this preparedness, delegates were urged everywhere to attend the classes of religious clinics, Y. P. D. and other Workshops. All of which were led by specialists in their line.

The work of evangelism was emphasized by Dr. E. J. Odom, Director-Secretary of Evangelism, and his helpers. "Guide Me O Thou Great Jehovah" was the theme song as explained by General Director, "Sunshine" Morris.

The pageant-drama, "Richard Allen Grows A Church," by Dr. Charles E. Stewart of Wilberforce, was a very beautiful portrayal of the growth of the Church of Allen from its inception to the present time and was well received by the large gathering.

Drs. W. D. Johnson (Vox Pop) G. A. Singleton, former editor of the Christian Recorder, led in the "Horns of Hatten" service.

Hundreds of A. M. E. Youths were present and were calling for representation and a definite place in the program of the Youth's Congress and other organiaztions of the Church.

Many of the great speakers condemned the "White Supremacy" attitude assumed by certain white people over the country and pleaded for free speech, tolerance and ecomic security all over the country for Negro people.

The young people of the Congress were given a reception at Carey Temple A. M. E. Church on Michigan Avenue from 5:30 to 7:30 p. m. on the second day of the meeting.

Bishop D. Ward Nichols of the Ninth Episcopal District of Alabama presided on the third day and was booked to preach the Sunday morning sermon, but having been called away suddenly, on important business, Bishop John H. Clayborn was asked to preach, and he did so to the great satisfaction of all who were fortunate to hear him.

In almost every action, word, thought of deed the name of Richard Allen was seen and heard.

The Congress was Social, Biblical, Informational, Educational and spiritual.

The Alabama delegation was given a reception by pastor and members of Mt. Olive A. M. E. church, 49th and South Parkway. Two Alabama women led in the reception. Mr. Horton, formerly of Birmingham and Centerville, Mr. H. D. Davidson, Dr. Dinkins and Dr. Raglend were called on to respond to the welcome.

We have always thought of America as a land in which any man might rise from the class in which he was born.

But in recent years many Americans have apparently been wanting to make lifelong slaves of themselves on a fixed level.

They've shown this by turning their economic struggle over to someone else. They've surrendered independence to political leaders and other self-appointed economic saviors.

They've said "You take care of me." They are content to listen to somebody else who says "Lean on me" . . . to somebody who will promise them a little safety and gain in exchange for their birthright of independence.

What's Happening at the Center

By S. W. WASHINGTON

Well, everything seems to be moving along rather nicely. The people continue to come to "see what you all are doing." That's exactly as we would have it.

Tuesday morning, Mrs. Alice Slaughter, Mrs. Easter Brown, Miss Willie B. Miller, Miss Charlotte Outland and Mr. Christopher Rumph spent quite a few hours shaking out and hanging curtains and drapery in the clubrooms, rearranging furniture, assorting and washing dishes and tumblers belonging to the Center. The day was hot but they worked tirelessly. They left saying, "If you need us again just let us know." That is the spirit!

Thursday night a large group of members of the N. A. A. C. P. met under the direction of Mr. C. D. F. Wilkinson.

Friday night the dramatic Club of which Miss L. B. Frierson, is president met in the upstairs rooms and had much fun with a large group of the junior set in a party.

Some renovations are being made in certain rooms so that some classes can be held there until the rooms are completed at Industrial High School which was destroyed by fire.

Several men met last week to work on the tennis court. It has not been completed, some men brought four yards of clay to fill in the low places. The Center has purchased 70 pounds of ice cream salt to help surface the court. That is not enough. Just like some men bought the clay, some others are doing the dirty work of spreading it and then levelling it off, you can buy some salt, can't you? Your horses run their shoes over very bad before they are given new ones. That makes them thin and easy to break. Our first call for horse shoes brought us quite a few. They are played with so often that the supply is dwindlnig again. Do you have any more? Need I say more?

Among the many useful books which was given by Mrs. Woodie White of 14th Ave. and Ninth St., she also gave two pairs of boxing gloves which are really in demand. Boxers of all sizes use them. The ground is pretty hard, though they hit it sometimes very hard. Some show skill and if others of them had competition it would be sheer murder. Gifts like these are encouraged and appreciated. As we continue to say, with your cooperation this can really be made a Community Center in name and deed.

police told the doctor that he was from Aiken, S. C. A few days later a couple of guys came into the ward inquiring about the soldier who got beat up in Aiken. They were interested because they were from Aiken themselves."

According to the story told by the eyewitness the attack actually occurred in Batesburg, a few miles from Aiken. "The bus operator came into the bus with three police officers and pointed to Isaac Woodard. One of the policemen came into the back of the bus and took Woodard out. When they got him outside one of the policemen took out a blackjack and smashed Woodard across thehead . . . then they carried him down the street. That is the last I saw of him," declared the witness.

NAACP Finds Eye-Witness To La. Lynchings

NEW YORK—The intensive search conducted by the NAACP through Louisiana, Texas, Pacific Coast and Middlewestern states resulted in finding Albert Harris and his father, Negro fugitives from Louisiana mob justice. Young Harris, eyewitness to the blow torch, meat cleaver lynching of Negro veteran John C. Jones, had been the object of a dramatic search conducted by the FBI and the NAACP as well as members of the Louisiana mob who, fearing the youth would identify them, rushed to Texas on August 19 in hopes of silencing him.

Both Harris, father and son, were finally discovered August 23 by the NAACP which had alerted each of its 1001 branches throughout the nation to offer protection to the fugitives wherever they appeared. Madison Jones, Administrative Assistant, was rushed to an undisclosed middlewestern town to bring the wouth and his father to New York where their testimony will be made available to the FBI. The Harrises arrived in New York on Wednesday, Aug. 28.

BIRMINGHAM, Ala. (ANPA)—When Alabama voters go to the polls on December 5, they will pass on the "race issue" in the form of the "Boswell Amendment."

Obviously, the furious campaign of hate to be engendered by efforts of the State Democratic Executive Committee, headed by Gessner T. McCorvey of Mobile, to pass this bill will cancel the high prestige of Alabama in the eyes of the nation.

The "Boswell Amendment" seeks to make the Democratic Party in Alabama a "white man's party." It will do more. Actually, it will wipe out Negro voting. Negroes will not be able to register. Consequently, the Negro citizen unjustly will be shut out of all political parties and all elections.

In reality, the "Boswell Amendment" is worse than the "white primary." For the "white primary" only barred Negroes from voting in the "white primary" and this amendment would actually ban them from becoming voters at all.

While directed at Negroes, it will legally give the reactionary politicians a chance to break up the progressive political organization of liberal Senator Lister Hill. Progres-
